Please read the following Privacy Statement carefully.

ABC Sanitation Inc. knows that you care how information about you is used and shared. Therefore we make a strong commitment to protect and respect the privacy principles regarding the personal information that you provide. The purpose of this Privacy Statement is to explain the types of information ABC Sanitation Inc. obtains about visitors to our website(s), how the information is collected, how it is used, and how visitors can restrict its use or disclosure. We appreciate your trust.

This Privacy Statement was last revised on Wednesday, June 20, 2012. It is in our own power to change this Privacy Statement at any time and for any reason. The latest version of the Privacy Statement will be available on our website(s) and significant changes to our Privacy Statement will be communicated on our homepage for a certain period of time after the change is made. By using our website(s), you agree to the terms of this Privacy Statement. This Privacy Statement is in accordance with the law on Privacy.

Personal information is any information concerning an identified or identifiable natural person. This includes information that tells us specifically who a person is, such as a person's name, telephone number, email address, home address or payment and financial information.

The way this information is communicated, for instance by word, text, sound or image, is of no importance.

We may also collect other information that does not in and of itself identify a specific person. This information includes IP addresses, search terms, domain names and browser types. We use this kind of information to track usage and other patterns on our website(s).

Ways Information Is Collected

We collect personal information via two main information streams:

The first information input is provided by any visitor who gives us their personal information on a voluntary basis. We keep a record of your name and email address in order to keep track of the username and password we assign to you. Subscription to our mailing lists supposes the transfer of a visitor's email address. A visitor who orders one of our products and/or services must provide us with personal information for different purposes.

Secondly, we receive and store certain types of information whenever you visit our website(s) via "cookies." Cookies are alphanumeric identifiers that we transfer to your computers' hard drive through your web browser to enable our systems to recognize your browser and to provide extra features. Like many other websites, we use cookies to obtain certain types of information when your web browser accesses our website(s).

How Is My Personal Information Used?

If you submit personal information, you agree that we may keep a record of this information. These records are strictly for internal use by ABC Sanitation Inc. The personal information that is collected by us through our web shop ordering facilities is used to fulfill our sales contract obligations. Therefore, it is possible that we give some restricted personal information to our distributor or other subcontractors for delivery purposes. During the installation, use or distribution of the software, the information we obtain shall be used for the purpose of the functioning of ABC Sanitation Inc. services.

Secondly, we will use your email address to provide you with software upgrades. Inherent to our business, we shall also make use of the possibility to provide you with information about our new products and services. Your personal information can even help us to improve our marketing and product development. Thirdly, if you pay for services by credit or bankcard, we will share your name with these bankcard companies, but only so that we may receive payment.

Our cookies' information input enables us to improve our level of services to clients and visitors. For example, a cookie is attached to a username and password registration so that we can identify our clients. This system also gives us the opportunity to collect information about the products a logged-in client has already obtained. Cookies are even used to help you read the appropriate information and tailor your visit to your individual preferences.

We do not sell, trade, rent or disclose individually identifiable information obtained about our clients and website visitors to anyone outside of ABC Sanitation Inc., unless it is required by law, regulation, court order or other legal process. We do not disclose your personal information unless it is necessary to protect the safety of customers, employees or property.

How secure is your personal information in our hands? We work to protect the security of your information during transmission by using Secure Sockets Layer software (SSL), which encrypts information you input.
